

The National Computational Science Institute:

*An Undergraduate Initiative of
The Shodor Education Foundation and
The National Computational Science Education
Consortium*

NSF GRANT ANNOUNCEMENT

December 18, 2001

10:00 a.m. (EST)

- 10:00 a.m. - Welcome from Thom Dunning, MCNC VP for High Performance Computing & Communications (Speaking from MCNC, North Carolina)
- 10:06 a.m. - Presentation of the NSF Grant by Andrew Bernat, Program Director, Division of Undergraduate Education, National Science Foundation (Speaking from ACCESS Center, Washington, D.C.)
- 10:12 a.m. - Acceptance from Robert M. Panoff, Executive Director, Shodor Education Foundation, Inc. (Speaking from MCNC, North Carolina)
- 10:20 a.m. - Comments from:
- Congressman Timothy Johnson, Representative of Illinois (Speaking from NCSA, Illinois)
 - Dan Reed, NCSA/Alliance Director (Speaking from ACCESS Center, Washington, D.C.)
 - Roscoe Giles, Team Leader for EOT-PACI, Deputy Director of the Center for Computational Science (Speaking from Boston University, Massachusetts)
 - Robyn Render, Vice President for information resources and chief information officer of the 16-campus University of North Carolina (Speaking from MCNC, North Carolina)
 - Jeffrey Huskamp, Chief Information Officer, East Carolina University (Speaking from MCNC, North Carolina)
 - J.B. Buxton, Education Advisor, North Carolina Office of the Governor (Speaking from MCNC, North Carolina)
- 10:50 a.m.- Questions and Answers